

Fee Agreements: Source of Funds, Confidentiality and Ethics

with Chris Davis of Langrock, Sperry & Wool

Friday, March 7, 2008

Mad River Glen Ski Area's Base Lodge
8:30 a.m. Registration, 9:00 – 11:00 a.m. Program
2 hours CLE in Ethics

Registration Deadline: March 3, 2008

Join us for an educational presentation by a highly qualified attorney involved in this field. Then we'll adjourn for lunch and a fun day on the legendary slopes of Mad River Glen! Participants can purchase reduced rate ski tickets.

Topics include:

- Issues regulating 3rd party payment of fees in criminal cases
- Confidentiality of fee agreements or lack thereof
- Specter looming over all criminal defense practitioners of a Fatico hearing regarding source of funds used to pay attorney's fees
- Other ethical dilemmas

Chris Davis joined Langrock, Sperry & Wool in 1992. He served for twelve years on the Vermont Judicial Conduct Board and has been an adjunct professor of Business Law at UVM for over twenty-five years. Chris is a past member and vice-chair of the Vermont Professional Conduct Board, and past chair of the Supreme Court Ad-hoc Committee on the Adoption of the Model Rules of Professional Responsibility. He is a frequent lecturer on issues in family law and legal ethics.
